

Appendix E – Response from RBC's Environmental Health Team

We support the proposal to remove the site as a consent street. We have been consulted on a number of licence proposals for the site but most have been deemed unsuitable due to issues such as potential nuisances.