The 12-month pilot for the RBC Citizen's Engagement Panel is intended be conducted in English only.

We would like to understand what residents' language access needs might be if this pilot is extended with more resources available for translation and related support.

Would support in a language different to English make it more accessible for you or someone you know to be able to engage with a future RBC Citizens' Engagement Panel?

If so, please provide further details in the box on the right.

We would like to hear the opinions of and understand the lived experiences of people from different backgrounds.

The following broadly reflect a selection of questions asked in the 2021 Census.
